

Meet Christina's Bio

Christina is a driven professional, entrepreneur, and community advocate who approaches every responsibility with confidence, curiosity, and a solutions-focused mindset. She is known for her ability to build strong relationships, take on new challenges, and develop innovative solutions that help projects and organizations move forward successfully.

For the past five years, Christina has worked as a Project Manager with Johnson & Johnson, Inc., where her organizational skills, attention to detail, and ability to manage multiple priorities have contributed to her professional success. Her inquisitive nature and collaborative approach allow her to identify challenges, coordinate resources, and bring people together to achieve shared goals.

In addition to her corporate career, Christina is the proud owner of Beyond Clean Solutions, a professional cleaning company created from her passion for public health, safety, and community well-being. Her educational background in public health helped her understand the important connection between clean environments, illness prevention, workplace safety, and the overall health of individuals and communities.

That knowledge inspired Christina to build a business focused on helping homes, businesses, and community spaces maintain clean, healthy, and welcoming environments. Through Beyond Clean Solutions, she combines her entrepreneurial spirit with her desire to serve others by providing reliable cleaning services that promote safety, comfort, and peace of mind.

Christina is also deeply committed to civic and community involvement. She serves as a commissioner on the Public Relations Commission for the City of Carson and volunteers with the Carson Cultural Arts Association Foundation. She is also a devoted member of the Los Angeles South Bay Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated, where she supports community programs and initiatives including food distribution, social action, and Women Helping Women.

Whether managing corporate projects, growing her business, or serving her community, Christina remains committed to helping people, strengthening relationships, and creating positive change. Her leadership, public health knowledge, entrepreneurial experience, and dedication to service make her a valuable advocate for cleaner, safer, and stronger communities.